

Boat Assembler/ Factory Team member

About the opportunity:

Haines Hunter Company currently has a position available for a Boat Assembler/ Factory Team member to join our growing team. This Position comes with an opportunity to learn all skills within the boat construction industry. This is a Casual/Part Time position with the opportunity to move to Full Time.

About the Company

World class boat builder Haines Hunter is based in the western region of Melbourne. Haines Hunter is seeking Boat Assembler/ Factory Team member to join their exceptional team. The company prides itself on producing a world class crafted product.

We require the following in a successful candidate.

- Own reliable transport
- High attention to Detail
- Experience within a manufacturing environment
- Experience in Fibre glassing and Rolling an advantage
- Experience cutting & fitting components
- Grinding Fibreglass materials
- Assembling experience desired but not essential
- A positive and "can do" attitude
- Excellent communication skills
- Operate on your own when required.
- An eye for detail.
- Any boat building, spray painting, panel beating, or 12 Volt wiring or marine associated experience will be an advantage to the applicant.

Why Join Us

At Haines Hunter Company, we pride ourselves on employee satisfaction, offering superior working conditions, as well as the following:

- Attractive hourly rate based on the applicant's experience, attitude and attendance.
- Great team environment
- Offers a secure long-term position
- Immediate start available

How to Apply

Email your cover letter and resume to accounts@haineshunter.com.au. A list of 3 references must be also included.